My Good People,

The past couple of weeks were an opportunity for me to be away from the burdens of daily life and listen to the wisdom of God. Personally, I received from the Lord an exhortation to ‘Prepare.’ Most of you know that I am a procrastinator. Although I have no false visions of suddenly becoming organized and a planner; I do hope to learn how to prepare better. Prepare for what? I am not sure, and that’s okay! All things shall be revealed in God’s time. But I do know that great things are instore for those who stand vigil and wait upon the Lord.

As we begin a new academic year I ask that you accomplish two simple things this week. First, take a garbage bag and go around the house and fill it up. Simplicity of life is a wisdom promulgated by Holy Mother Church that results in reduction of anxiety and an increase in peace. Secondly, get rid of a bad habit: one minor vice from your life this week. Cussing, putting your spouse down, eating in front of the TV, an app that is nothing but a waste of time, ignoring a co-worker, etc.

New carpet will be installed in the Nave of the Church this week. Behold, Jesus makes all things new! In Service to Christ and His Church, Fr. Charlie
