My Beloved People,

Everything you have is a gift from God; do not be so foolish to think that what you have is solely a product of your own hands. For all good things are from God; and all good things shall return to God. For no matter how hard we attempt to administer justice; God is the only true judge. Life is not fair. Some people are born into loving families that have plenty to eat; others are born into poverty. We as Christians are called to give away everything. We are eschatological people; that is: we do not live for this life because everything is love, and love requires sacrifice. Blessed are the Merciful for they shall be shown Mercy. Therefore, let it be proclaimed: Christ calls us to self-gift and forgiveness. When conflict arises between you and your neighbor, it is your duty, as a Christian, to bring forgiveness into the situation.

Have a most blessed week. This time next week we will be preparing for the great penitential season of Lent. I encourage you all to have fun dancing these next few days so that we may arrive on Ash Wednesday prepared for repentance and Contrition of heart.

In Service to Christ and His Church, Father Charlie Ray

This collection supports the Church in more than 25 countries that still struggle to recover from former communist rule. Funds from this collection support pastoral care, catechesis, renovations, and seminary formation. Your support restores the Church and builds the future in this region. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection next week. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/ccee.

May 13-15 Women's Genesis of Eve Conference: Come to the Well

Come to the Well is a unique opportunity for Catholic women to find greater meaning and purpose in their lives through Christ. Join us for a weekend of spiritual encounter, intellectual empowerment and apostolic evangelization. This conference, rooted in our Catholic faith, will provide a weekend away from the demands of life and offer spiritual encounter through prayer and testimonies, intellectual empowerment via educational tracks and evangelization via meeting and talking with the women of the diocese. The goal of this weekend is to create an environment where women of all ages can deepen their personal relationship with Christ. To register visit: <https://bit.ly/genesisofeve>
