My Good People,

One of the beautiful aspects of Christianity is that we firmly believe that God does everything He asks us to do before He asks us to do it. He always acts first. In other words, God walks the walk before he talks the talk. He forgives us, before He asks us to forgive those who have trespassed against us. He spends time in the desert, fasts, and worships before He asks us to do the same. I was reminded of this concept this week when The Gospel proclaimed the Parable of the Pearl of Great Price. The wise man, upon finding the treasure, does everything he can to secure it. But have you ever thought that you are God's pearl of great price? We all desire to be cherished by someone; it's a completely awesome revelation to know that you are God's beloved creature; He wants nothing more than to dwell in you. For if God cares about me, why should all the other struggles in life defeat me?

Know that I will be contemplating our future over the next two weeks. Lately, Bishop Marshall's Moto has been on my mind: Live Jesus in our hearts. The opportunity to do so is available to each of us. And I encourage us to discern ways to do so. Great things are instore for those who trust in the Lord.

In Service to Christ and His Church, Fr. Charlie

From the fear of being humiliated, Deliver me, Jesus. From the fear of being despised, Deliver me, Jesus. From the fear of suffering rebukes, Deliver me, Jesus. That others may be loved more than I, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it. Amen
