Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe,
November 20, 2022

My Good People,

As we enter the last week of the liturgical calendar I am overwhelmed with gratitude for the goodness of God. As a child I studied so that I would pass the test; today, I study because it's so wonderful to know about God. The biggest surprise of my life is that God's love is inexhaustible, and the more you learn the better it gets!

This weekend you will be receiving a calendar for the season of Advent. The fruit of the disciplines of Advent are a renewed anticipation and Hope of receiving Jesus at Christmastide. I encourage you to research Catholic ways of beginning (or renewing) Advent Traditions in your home. Model your celebrations after the Church, not secular culture.

Lastly, I will be away this week with a classmate. I plan to return energized and with new ideas. Please pray for me and all priests, and especially for those young men who the Lord is calling to embrace the Office of Presbyterate. Thank you for your love,

In Service to Christ and His Church,

Fr. Charlie
