My Good People,

One of my favorite moments in the spiritual life is when you realize how little you know. If we are actualizing the faith, it creates awe within us; and if we are filled with pride it creates frustration. We all get frustrated from time to time, but life is much better when we experience more awe and less frustration. It is okay to not know things about God and Catholicism. However, it is not okay to not be constantly learning. Many of you foolishly view the faith as a treasure to be protected in a display case. Only bringing the faith out when other people are around. The faith is a tool: like a shovel that is meant to be used, to break our stony hearts and dig and search for meaning, purpose, and love. There are many ways to actualize our faith: prayer, Sacraments, charity, virtues, and forgiveness. I challenge you to reduce those activities that lead to frustration and increase those activities that create awe within you. Embrace the faith; embrace Jesus; embrace goodness.

In Service to Christ and His Church, Fr. Charlie

From the fear of being humiliated, Deliver me, Jesus. From the fear of being despised, Deliver me, Jesus. From the fear of suffering rebukes, Deliver me, Jesus. That others may be loved more than I, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it. AMEN

Altar Server Training

To grow in a greater reverence for the Most Holy Eucharist, I invite any Catholic in good standing (able to receive Holy Communion) to receive training in how to become an Altar Server. Beginning in Advent Altar Servers will model a renewed sense of sanctity as they embrace this important liturgical ministry. Adults and Children should pray and discern if God is calling them to serve at the Holy Altar. Each server will begin training as 'Level 1,' and progress according to how they execute their duties.

- Level I & II Training: Saturday, October 29, 10am or Friday, November 11, 6:00pm
- Level III & IV Training: Friday, November 11, 6:45pm

World Mission Sunday: This weekend we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in that week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Bishops Emergency Disaster Fund: October 29 & 30: We have been moved by the stories of death and loss in Florida and the Carolinas in the wake of Hurricane Ian. In this state, we know all too well how devastating a hurricane can be. Thank you to those parishes and communities who have already responded – helping our new Catholic Charities of Central Louisiana in their response or through financial contributions to Catholic Charities, or other agencies. We are asking you to further assist in this effort and to provide resources to respond to other natural disasters in the future. This special collection on the weekend of October 29-30 will be sent to the Bishops Emergency Disaster Fund to benefit Hurricane Ian relief. Please be generous.
