Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 25, 2022

My Good People,

This past week I took my dad to Houston for a check-up. Dad enjoys spicy food. One afternoon we found ourselves in a local Chinese Restaurant. When dad ordered his dish ‘extra spicy,’ the kind server asked him if he was ‘sure.’ I managed two bites and he managed a few more. Padre Pio teaches that worrying is the most illogical thing a human being can do. Some of us are worried about the stock market; some of us are worried about our children, some of us are worried about social justice. But we are not in control of any of those things. My Dad’s cancer could come back aggressively at any moment, but he, or I, am not in control. Let us enjoy God’s creation and all the beautiful and wonderful things He has bestowed on us!

Pray, Hope, and Don't Worry!

In Service to Christ and His Church, Fr. Charlie

From the fear of being humiliated, Deliver me, Jesus. From the fear of being despised, Deliver me, Jesus. From the fear of suffering rebukes, Deliver me, Jesus. That others may be loved more than I, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

AMEN
