Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 4, 2022

My Good People,

Recently I shared with you that the Lord has been calling me to prepare. For what? I don't know, but what I do know is that He has planted numerous seeds and the harvest is abundant. If you look around there is a lot of growing: renewed interest in the liturgy, Sacrament of Confession, Interior Prayer, Community, and countless other aspects of Catholicism. This is because Catholicism has been with humanity from the Resurrection and will continue to be with us until the Lord's Glorious Second Coming. Everything else comes and goes because its source is not God, but man. Political Systems, Fashion, Entertainment, Arts, and Laws will come and go, but Truth will always remain. Throughout the centuries Catholicism, whether it was being celebrated or persecuted, has remained consistent. We give thanks to God, we unite ourselves to Him, and we Hope to share in His eternal Kingdom.

I ask that you join me in preparing the way of the Lord. Ask yourself, "what is God asking me to surrender to Him?" "What is God asking me to embrace?" Have courage my good people, great things are instore for those who place their trust in the Lord.

In Service to Christ and His Church, Fr. Charlie

September 4 - Catholic University of America: Since 1903, The Catholic University of America has been blessed by the generosity of parishioners around the country through the National Collection. James Cardinal Gibbons, our first chancellor and the ninth Archbishop of Baltimore, affectionately called the collection "the people's endowment." Catholic University is the national university of the Catholic Church. Gifts to the National Collection — the only second collection taken for higher education in the U.S. — support students during this crucial time and help the University conduct critical research that will serve parishes and dioceses throughout the country. Please be generous. For more information visit: <https://engage.catholic.edu/giving/how-give/national-collection>
